

EPIPHANY CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Let the Children come to Me - Luke 18

January 23, 2017

Dear Epiphany Catholic School Prospective Parent,

After the decision of where to live and work, there is none more important, or more intensely personal, than where to send one's children to school. For instance, does the school reflect and reinforce deeply held parental values and beliefs? Or does the school provide an atmosphere with high academic expectations in a faith-centered environment? We welcome these and other questions, and we would be honored to meet with you to discuss them and your child's education and spiritual formation.

By any standard, Epiphany Catholic School excels in its mission to work closely with parents to cultivate life-long habits in a safe, nurturing, faith-filled environment. In 2011, for example, our school was recognized as a National Blue Ribbon School by the United States Department of Education — one of only 304 schools out of the country's 168,000 elementary education institutions. Locally, Epiphany Catholic School is considered a model for bullying prevention and character formation.

Our Catholic faith is central to our students' experience at Epiphany Catholic School. Weekly Mass attendance, special monthly spiritual celebrations and periodic visits to our beautiful church supplement instruction in the Catholic faith. The recently added Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program provides a Montessori-style emersion into the faith for our youngest learners. Our Character education program assists our children's growth in virtue by stressing monthly traits that nurtures growth in character.

In addition to the regular curriculum areas, weekly special instruction includes Art, Computers, Music, Physical Education and Spanish. This is all done in a safe, clean and modern second-to-none facility.

Catholic education is a gift that will last a child's lifetime and, as you know, will require significant sacrifices. So, as you decide which school matches best with your principles, values, beliefs and academic standards, in a warm, family-like environment, we welcome the opportunity to visit with your family to discuss the advantages of Epiphany Catholic School.

May God Bless You and Your Family,

Mike Lootens
Principal—Epiphany Catholic School
